

Before and after Energy Healing Aura Photos

The pictures below were taken before and after a meditation led by Barbara Candiotti where she channeled Energy Healing for John and Marian. The Energy Healing meditation took place on May 1st, 2011. The Aura Color interpretations below were done by Jean Luo PhD, a color therapy expert.

The first set of pictures is of Barbara before and after she performed the Energy Healing

The before picture shows pure indigo blue around Barbara and dark purple above her head. This shows connection to Master's energy to get ready for Energy Healing meditation. Barbara is ready to channel energy to transform Marian and John's energy. It is up to Marian and John as to how they will use this energy.

The after meditation shows two different red colors. The brownish red above her head is the energy that she took away or cleared from John and Marian. This could be anger or frustration probably on the subconscious level. The bright purer red around her torso is red representing pure energy.

The second set of pictures is of Marian, one of the recipients of the Energy Healing

Marian's before picture shows dark blue in background. This shows Marian has the psychic gift and is working on this aspect of herself. The red shows Marian has a lot of energy and needs to use it. If this energy is not used it can bring tiredness.

Marian's after picture shows green meaning healing ability. Barbara opened up Marian's healing ability for her to use for herself or for others. The yellow around her throat, shows doubt about her ability. The purple around her head shows Marian has the ability to connect to high level spiritual energy.

The third set of pictures is of John the other recipient of the Energy Healing

The before picture shows abundance of red. This shows John also has a lot of energy, a power house of energy. If this energy is not used it can turn into anger. It can also represent frustration about something in his life.

The after picture shows a large amount of green indicating tremendous healing ability. The yellow is fear around this ability. John is working on removing this fear. Once he removes his fear John will step into his destiny of being a teacher and healer.
